Secretary Rosario Marin Joins Councilmember Sophia Scherman at her Monthly Community Breakfast
FOR A DISCUSSION ON CALIFORNIA'S ECONOMY, THE FORECLOSURE CRISIS, AND SMALL BUSINESS PROCUREMENT

Elk Grove – On Tuesday, July 8, 2008 at 7:30 A.M., Councilmember Sophia Scherman will host her monthly community breakfast to discuss the foreclosure crisis and Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger's plan to fight the growing number of foreclosures in Elk Grove. Consumer Services Agency Secretary Rosario Marin will be on hand to discuss California's economy, the foreclosure crisis, and small business procurement - issues that are a top concern for Elk Grove residents.

In addition to her roll with the administration, Secretary Marin also served as the 41st Treasurer of the United States. A position, which gives her a unique insight into today's struggling economy.

This month's breakfast is second of a series of housing and economy related forums Councilmember Scherman is hosting. The first breakfast included a discussion of the City of Elk Grove's actions against foreclosed properties that have been neglected by owners, etc.

Councilmember Sophia Scherman's Community Breakfast is the first Tuesday of every month located at Cassidy's Family Restaurant, 9625 East Stockton Blvd., Elk Grove. The meeting is open to the public.

For more information, please contact Councilmember Scherman at scherman@sophiaelkgrove.com or (916) 685-3860.
