Councilmember Sophia Scherman Continues Fundraising Dominance

Out raises opponents by over $100,000

(Elk Grove) – With the race for Elk Grove’s District 5 City Council race taking shape, Councilmember Sophia Scherman dominates her opponents in fundraising.

In financial reports released Friday, Scherman crushed her opponents raising $30,720 from January 1st to June 30th. Overall Scherman has raised $120,000 with $62,000 cash on hand.

Currently, Scherman’s main opponent, Katherine Maestas, raised only $13,000 and only $3,800 cash on hand. Adding in campaign debt, their campaign has only $1,300 left for the election. Even more unusual, Maestas didn’t raise a single dollar from Elk Grove residents.

“Councilmember Scherman not taking this campaign lightly,” commented campaign spokesman Justin Matheson. “Voters want to see her continue her distinguished leadership on the council and their support proves it.”

Serving on the City Council since its incorporation in 2000, Sophia was the first woman Mayor of Elk Grove in 2003. She was also a local business owner operating “Sophia’s Travel” in Elk Grove for 10 years and the past President of the Elk Grove Chamber of Commerce.
